Come. Heal. Stay.

Mission statement: Provide medical care funding for sick and injured adoptable animals in the care of central Pennsylvania rescues and shelters.

Save The Date for 2010

Saturday,
Sept 25th
2010 at 8:30 AM

If you are interested in volunteering during the race, please call or email and we will invite you to the informational planning meeting

Come. Heal. Stay.

COME: Come take a look at our website and learn about The Merrick Fund Foundation helping central Pennsylvania rescues and shelters with medical expenses, so suffering is minimized and lives are saved

HEAL: Sick and injured animals need your help to have a chance for medical care and the opportunity to heal and become part of a loving forever family

STAY: Stay with the team and make a difference, by volunteering, donating, and participating in fun events. Spread the word about The Merrick Fund Foundation to your friends and family

Bingo Blast!

A great time was had by all at our second Bingo Blast. Thank you Steelton Italian Club for hosting our event. Thank you also to Pat Hollander for donating a gorgeous homemade quilt for our raffle.

Summer Dog's Den

friendly children and dogs to run and play with.

Summer is a cute little Jack Russell tricolor. She is very sweet with children, good with other dogs, and loves everyone. A bulging disk in her back was causing Summer a lot of pain. After treatment, she is ready to find some

Acorn Furry Friends Network

Acorn, a 5 month old female Shetland Sheepdog, (sheltie) fractured her leg. After surgery she was given an adorable pink cast to wear while she mended. Acorn is in foster care with Furry Friends Network.

100% of your donation is used for medical care

Since inception, your Merrick

Lana
Furry Friends Network

Lana was a puppy mill momma, dumped in a shelter with her five adorable puppies. In addition to all the work that motherhood demands, Lana had a heart murmur and enlarged heart. Surgery corrected her congenital circulatory condition. She will surely be courted by many families looking for such a sweetheart.

Heather
Castaway Critters

Heather is a stray from the borough of Dauphin. Her toes and lower limb were totally atrophied and infection had set in. Castaway Critters took her into the fold, and an emergency amputation at the hip of her right rear leg saved her life. We are happy to report that Heather was adopted into a loving forever family with other friendly felines.

Duke
York County SPCA

Duke is an 8 month old Great (really Great – 110 pounds!) Dane who fractured his leg on a stairway. The York County SPCA contacted the Merrick Fund for assistance with his orthopedic surgery. Duke is recovering well in foster care and is looking for a new forever family.

Hooch
Animal Rescue, Inc.

Poor Hooch had no home and no person. He was in the road when he shouldn't have been, and got hit by a car, and broken his back leg. Hooch is very sweet and loving and eager to please and LOVES to be considered adding Hooch with people. Please to your family!

The Merrick Fund Foundation makes funding available to all central Pennsylvania rescues and shelters for medical care expenses for sick and injured adoptable animals.
